Welcome home! Nestled on a quiet dead-end street in a desirable Weymouth neighborhood, this inviting 3-bedroom, 1.5-bath home offers over 1,600 sq ft of living space with a flexible floor plan. The highlight is the spacious 12x24 living room with a large fireplace and plenty of room for both a sitting area and dining space. Hardwood floors extend through the living room and two first-floor bedrooms, while the third bedroom upstairs features cozy wall-to-wall carpeting. A screened-in covered porch overlooks the backyard, offering the perfect spot to relax outdoors. The partially finished basement provides a versatile recreation room with a slider that opens directly to the spacious yard—ideal for entertaining, play, or simply unwinding. Conveniently located near commuter rail, major highways, shopping, and dining, this home combines peace and quiet with everyday convenience.
